FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Cleveland Museum of Art's Counsel has received a copy of a complaint filed on September 15, 1987, by Capricorn Art International, S.A. Panama, in the Cuyahoga County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas against The Cleveland Museum of Art and T. Rogers & Company (Packers) Ltd. of London. The complaint seeks to recover damages for a gold plaque that was not received by the Museum in the course of a shipment of a reliquary from London to Cleveland in connection with the exhibition Kushan Sculpture: Images from Early India held at the Museum in the autumn of 1985. The Museum has referred the matter to its insurers.
